COMPANY STATEMENT

Fowler Oil & Gas would like to issue a response to the Anchorage Daily News feature story on 07 April 2008, regarding the previous bankruptcy of our CEO, Bob Fowler, and the “shadow” that ADN says is cast over his natural gas venture in the Matanuska Valley.

The entire ADN article can be summed up in several sentences:

Bankruptcy can happen to anyone and especially when involved in business. The question is whether criminal acts were committed along the way.

All of Mr. Fowler’s creditors were given an opportunity to present their allegations of wrongdoing to 3 different federal judges and two federal bankruptcy trustees. The result was that no charges were ever filed and not one allegation of criminal wrongdoing was upheld.

This is a complete vindication of all the allegations.
