

Q & A BLOG

We welcome questions. Please send to: Robert.fowler@fowleroilandgasalaska.com

18 Mar 08

Question: Why does Fowler Oil & Gas say that they want to lower gas costs? This seems at odds with corporate America's goal of maximizing profits.

Answer: Our corporate philosophy differs from many corporations. While we want to make a healthy profit for ourselves we will not pursue any project that does not benefit the citizens of Alaska and our local and state governments.

We think that sharing the wealth along the way leads to more wealth for everyone at the end of the road.